Admission Requirements

Applicant eligibility (minimum requirements) to participate in the Ecole Libre d'architecture, May 2018 are:

1. Minimum Requirements:

- Must be aged between 22 and 101 years of age.
- Must have evidence of experience – professionally or otherwise – in a discipline that engages with a form of practice relevant to architecture.

2. Residency in Paris & Venice or the ability to travel to Paris during the period starting

- Tuesday, May 1, 2018 and ending in
- a single session in Venice on Thursday, May 24, 2018 (travelling to Venice is optional)

3. The Sessions will run on three days per week Tuesday to Thursday on the following dates

Week One	May	1 (May Day – La Fete du Travail), 2, 3
Week Two	May	8 (Fete de la Victoire 1945) , 9, 10 (l'Ascension)
Week Three	May	15, 16, 17
Special workshop	May	20 (Pentacote) & 21 (Pentacote)
Assembly in Venice	May	24 at the Vernissage of the Biennale. (optional)

Although ELa encourages full-time (3 days per week) participation in the Ecole Libre d'architecture, May 2018, ELa realises that full-time participation may not, in many cases, be possible.

Sessions will run from Tuesday through Thursday each week with some special events or sessions to be held at other times, this programming is aligned to help those employed to participate. Ela is happy to intercede on your behalf with your employers. A full timetable will be available on the ELa web site in February 2018. ELa will ask accepted participants to confirm their expected level of attendance upon admission.

Unfortunately, ELa is unable to assist with travel costs, local accommodations, insurances or VISAS for non E.U. nationals.

4. Languages

ELa will be run in English, although there may be some sessions in translated from the French.

Fluency in written and spoken English is a minimum requirement, French would be an advantage.
